

How to Apply for a Learning Community

ELIGIBILITY

Any new student not admitted into the Honors Program who is eligible for on-campus housing may apply for a Living/Learning Community. First-year Honors students must live in the Honors LC; they can apply for another LC in their sophomore year if interested.

APPLYING

- Pay the UConn Enrollment Deposit at least 3-5 business days before May 1 to gain access to your UConn Housing Application by the priority deadline.
- Select a Learning Community on your UConn Housing Application.
- If you already submitted your application and would like to add an LC, you may do so by emailing livelearn@uconn.edu the following: Your Full Name, UConn ID (7 digits), indicate whether you are a first year or transfer student, and which LC you are applying for.

SELECTION

- LC selection is randomized for students who apply by May 1.
- Waitlists will be established once a community is full. Students on the waitlist are still eligible for general housing and will not forfeit their spot to live on campus.
- If you apply for housing after May 1, you will still be considered in subsequent rounds of LC selection.

Remember to keep checking your UConn email for important information!

NON-RESIDENTIAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES

To participate in one of these major-based First Year Experience (FYE) courses, register for it during your advising session at New Student Orientation. View offerings at LC.uconn.edu.
